

Packing List

- Clothing
- At least one pair of shorts that goes all the way to the knee. You will wear these 5 days
 - T shirts for work at shelters, tank tops are ok at camp
 - A pair of shorts that can get paint on them
 - A hoodie (This is me hoping that it won't be 100 degrees every day)
 - Jammies that everyone can see you in.
 - Swimsuit that is appropriate for a church trip. Or you will be required to wear a tshirt
 - We will be very hot so make sure you have enough clothes for the week.
 - One nicer outfit to go out to dinner in
 - A plain white T shirt (for tie dye if you are interested)
- Other Stuff
- 2-3 towels
 - Bed roll (sheets, pillow and blanket) or sleeping bag and pillow
 - Flashlight
 - Water Bottle
- Shoes
- Tennis shoes
 - Another pair of shoes (flip flops are fine)
- More Other Stuff
- Personal items: shampoo, toothbrush, hair brush, toothpaste, soap, deodorant, makeup, blow dryers...
 - Medications – Please do not send ibuprophen or Tylenol. We will have plenty.
- Info
- All medications including allergy medications must be turned in to Dawn when we leave.
THERE WILL BE NO MEDICATIONS OR OTC DRUGS WITH KIDS
 - Snacks are fine to bring but we will have plenty of food. Remember we will be in the woods with little animals that will get into your stuff while we are gone.
 - Cash Everything is paid for. But if you would like to bring a little money that is fine.
 - Electronics Electricity will be at a premium. I believe there is electricity in the cabins but probably only 1 or 2 outlets. NO gaming devices, tablets or laptops.
 - ABSOLUTELY NO: firearms, fireworks, drugs, alcohol, weapons, or anything that will make me mad. (They know what this means)
 - All of this must be in an 18 gallon tote completely sealed with your name printed on each side including the top. Your bed roll may be separate.
